The meeting was called to order by President, Lynn Kessel, at 6:33 pm.

Review of Financial Report:

No Financial Summary was presented.

Old Business: none

New Business and Announcements:

Guest presenter Tammy Pierce, provided a presentation on Painting Wildflowers.

Jennifer Polnaszek emphasized upcoming events in the WCAG Art Education Program. These classes/workshops are enumerated on the web site and in the Newsletter.

Evie Walberg requested old, used, dirty, clean, new or unusable (or any condition) paint brushes – any size from 3" to small. We are hoping to get about 300 or so for a 50 year celebration decoration.

Lynn reminded the attendees about the 50 year celebration Peace, Love & Art Celebration affair on September 26th (6-9 pm). The event will have a 70's entertainment and dress theme. The overall celebration will include the "Legacy Exhibit" (up to 100 pieces of art work).

It was announced that due to room scheduling, the next WCAG Members Meeting will be on Monday, May 11th.

Other Board Members and Coordinator Reports:

Exhibit Chair: Patti Wojtowecz described upcoming WCAG Exhibit opportunities and shows (all of these are also in the Newsletter and/or in current CFA communications).

Gallery Chair: Evie Walberg discussed upcoming WCAG Gallery activities including the May Big Pictures Show (at least 24 x 36). She also described opportunities for participation in the impending Art Stroll events.

The Challenge Theme:

Attendees accepting the art challenge showed their work which fit the theme, "Flowers." Participating artists in this challenge were entered into the monthly drawing for a one-month, one-piece exhibit fee credit at the WCAG Gallery. The winning artist was Tammy Pierce.
